

Asurint Privacy Policy

Thank you for visiting the Asurint web site. In furtherance of our commitment to the privacy of our customers, we have implemented and abide by the following Privacy Policy in order to protect the privacy of all visitors to our web site.

Asurint offers a wide range of innovative pre-employment verification and screening services, including criminal-background checks, previous employment and education references, motor vehicle records, and more. This information helps companies reduce their exposure to fraud, workplace violence, and negligent-hiring lawsuits.

Scope

This Privacy Policy applies only to information you provide to us online while visiting or using our web site. It does not apply to information we have obtained offline, or through other traditional means. If you have questions concerning our policies with respect to information we receive or collect other than through this web site, please contact us at the address below.

The Data this Policy Covers

Information you may provide in visiting our site falls into two broad categories: personally identifiable information and aggregate information. "Personally Identifiable Information" is information that can be used to identify or contact you, such as your name, email address, mailing address, or credit card information. "Aggregate Information" is information that does not identify you, and may include, for example, statistical information concerning the web pages on our site that users most frequent.

Our Customers

We provide information to business customers only - not to the general public. Asurint customers and markets include human resources, loss-prevention, and risk-management departments; employment agencies; investigators; finance companies; attorneys; and government. All customers must undergo a prequalification process and demonstrate a legitimate business need for the information.

Personally Identifiable Information

OST does not use Personally Identifiable Information collected from our customers through this web site, whether order information or client information, for any purpose other than for conducting the Asurint Services. We do not share with third parties any Personally Identifiable Information, except as needed to carry out the services you have requested. Asurint will at all times abide by federal and state laws and regulations in regard to Personally Identifiable Information collected from our web site. In addition, we have put in place security systems designed to prevent unauthorized disclosure or use of information you provide to us. These systems are structured to deter and prevent hackers and others from accessing this information. Due to the nature of Internet communications and evolving technologies, however, we cannot provide, and disclaim, assurance that the information you provide us will remain free from loss, misuse, or alteration through third parties who, despite our efforts, obtain unauthorized access.

Aggregate Information

We may collect Aggregate Information from our web site. This Information does not identify you. We may collect this type of Information through cookies and similar Internet technologies. "Cookies" are small text files that a web site can use to recognize repeat users, to facilitate the user's ongoing access to and use of the site, and to compile aggregate data to improve the site and focus advertising. If we use cookies, they do not collect or retain your name or other Personally Identifiable Information. In addition, no third parties are permitted to use cookies we may create at our site for their own purposes.

Changes to your Information

We allow you to update, correct, or delete Personally Identifiable Information you have provided us. Accordingly, upon your reasonable request, and to the extent your request does not compromise our privacy policies, we will provide you with access to Personally Identifiable Information you have previously provided to us, and allow you to update and correct this Information. In addition, we provide you with the ability to decline — or "opt-out of" — certain online mailings and other online materials we may offer to our web site users. If you wish to change or delete the Personally Identifiable Information you have provided us via this web site, please contact us at the address listed below. Please further understand, as stated above, that this Privacy Policy does not govern use of the databases we employ to provide our services, and this Policy does not cover a data subject's request to remove or alter identifying information which is contained in these services-related databases, and which we have obtained by means other than through this web site.

Data from Children

Our site is not directed at children, and we will not accept or request personal information from individuals we know to be under 13. In accordance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998, if we learn that a child under 13 has provided us with Personally Identifiable Information, we will delete this information from our databases, in accordance with our deletion policy, set out above. For more information regarding a child under the age of 13 providing personal information to a Web site, see the Federal Trade Commission's Web site explaining the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998 at <http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/online/edcams/kidzprivacy/>.

Exceptions

There are two exceptions to this Privacy Policy. First, we may disclose Personally Identifiable Information as may be required in legal proceedings, or in response to a subpoena, court order, or administrative order compelling disclosure. Second, in cases involving a threat of imminent harm to you or others, we may release such Information to prevent or mitigate the threat. In any such case, we will seek to limit the scope of disclosure, and will disclose only such Information as is reasonably required to fulfill the purpose of the disclosure.

Changes

Please note this Privacy Policy will change from time to time. We expect most such changes to be minor, but there may be changes that are more significant. Any changes will be posted on this page and if the changes are, in our interpretation, significant we will also provide a more prominent notice. Each version will be noted at the top of the page. Prior versions of this Privacy Policy will be kept in an archive and are available by contacting the Compliance Office below.

Your Consent

By using our web site, you consent to our collection and use of information in accordance with this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with some, or all, of the terms of this Privacy Policy, please refrain from submitting such Information through our web site or from visiting our site. This site may, in limited circumstances, direct you to third-party sites that may be connected to third-party information.

Asurint respects your privacy concerns

Asurint's privacy and security policies demonstrate our responsibilities to the individuals about whom we report information and to our customers who rely on us to safeguard the information they order. If you have any questions or concerns about Asurint's privacy and security policies, please contact us.
